Death of Mr. Douglas.

William Douglas, a resident of Concord, died at the Waterbury asylum Dec. 24, and his body was brought here for burial. William Donglas was born at Hartland, Jan. 23, 1827, the son of John and Mehitable (Elliot) Douglas. He was one of six children, none of whom are living except a sister, Mrs. Freelove Mace, of Woodstock, who will celebrate her 100th birthday Feb. 14. His early life was spent in Hartland. He was married in February, 1851, to Amanda M. Douglas. One child was born to them, Mrs. Maria A. Bryer, of St. Johnsbury. After the death of his first wife he was married Aug. 17, 1853, to Miss Hannah E. Stone at Lancaster, N. H. Eleven children were born to them: Albert L., who lives at St. Johnsbury; Charles H., deceased; Frank L. of Cum-berland, Wis.; William E. of Concord; Flora D. and Mary L., deceased; Walter L. and Hubert C. of Concord; Herbert S. of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan; Blanche C. Currier and Miss Bertha of Concord. Mr. Douglas was a respected citizen of Concord for 30 years. He was a farmer and lived on the farm occupied now by his son, Walter L. Douglas. He was very energetic and thrifty until his health failed him several years ago, when it was necessary to take him to Waterbury. He is survived by his wife and nine children. Funeral services were held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nancy Currier, Thursday, at 10 a.m. Rev. M. H. Smith officiating. J. K Hovey, Mrs. Miner Carpenter and Mrs. Cora Bailey sang. Those called here from away were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bryer and son Roy, Miss Jennie Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Douglas and Frank Reed, all of St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cobleigh and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cobleigh and two children spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Loren Hastings at St. Johnsbury.

The Christmas concerts given by the Sunday schools of the Universalist and Methodist churches at the town hall Tuesday and Wednesday evenings respectively, were up to the usual high order of excellence and the house was well filled both evenings. The children performed their parts admirably well. Special mention should be made of Priscilla Carpenter, a little girl of five summers, who sang a song in a very interesting manner, which elicited loud applause. The decorations were very pretty in green and red and the trees were well filled with presents.

Miss Edith Howard entertained Miss Bertha Dan els of Waterford last week. Mrs. James Mann and Miss Annie Mann of St. Johnsbury were recent guests at John Mann's.

Miss Blanche Walbridge of Boston spent the Christmas vacation with her parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. H. Walbridge. Dr. and Mrs. G. B. French entertained for Christmas their son, Harold French of Burlington, Edward Reed of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. The Kiss.

A kiss is a peculiar proposition-of no use to one, yet absolutely bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young man has to steal it and the old man has to buy it. The baby's right, the lover's privilege, the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith; to a married woman, hope; and to an old mail, charity. The bliss of the kiss, however, is frequently lessened, or lost entirely on account of offensive breath of one or both of the participants caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. There is no occasion for this condition though for the reason that Rydale's Stomach Tablets will soon correct the stomach trouble and do away with the bad breath. They [the Stomach Tabletsnot the kiss] are guaranteed by W. V. Orcutt. Directions: Take two boxes Rydale's Stomach Tablets and follow up with the kiss as often as convenient.

A Mistake Corrected. It is a mistake to combine in the same remedy both stomach and liver medicines, because the stomach is not always out of order when the liver is, or vice versa. While it is true that these organs are so closely related that when one is affected the other is likely to be also, still there are times when one is affected and the plication of diseases, due to old age. other is not. It is a serious error to give a liver medicine combined with a stomach medicine when the stomach only needs treatment, and it is not necessary to treat the stomach when the liver only is disordered. Rydale's method is the most sensible one. He does not combine the two, but makes a tablet for the stomach and a tablet for the liver, which can be combined if necessary. Guaranteed by Christmas Echoes. Merchants all report a go nas trade, in spite of most unfavorable weather. Business was rushing at the postoffice, and although Christmas of 1906 was a record breaker, this year surpassed it by a third. The various churches had trees and exercises for the children and others. The children of the Congregational Sunday school lived up to the spirit of the day by sending out about 20 small trees, with gitts and decorations to the homes of these who were shut in, or for other reasons unable to go to the church.

One of the most delightful Christmas gatherings of this year took place at The House, Speedwell Farms, where Mr. and Mrs. Theodore N. Vail invited about 150 children, nearly all under 10 years of age, to a big Christmas party Wednesday afternoon. The little people were conveyed from and to their homes in big barges and judging from their own accounts spent the afternoon in a glorious dream, in which an immense and beautiful Christmas tree a real Santa Claus, games, toys, carrly, snapping crackers, cake and ice cream, music and flowers, all mingled in a phantasmagoria of delight. # Remarkable Increase in Savings

The Island Pond Herald, in commenting on the remarkable growth of deposits in the Hyde Park Savings Bank, brings out several good reasons for this growth. It says:

A special feature of this institution is that it gives local patrons the preference, its loans are in Vermont. Thus it has not only advanced public interest, but has done a safe and prosperous business since its institution, eighteen years ago. The assets only last week passed the million-dollar mark and, we repeat, not a single cent of it invested out of Veron December 4, at his home near Law- mont.
